

MEN IDENTIFIED

By Prof. Waughtel Who Was Caught by Robbers.

Four Suspects Put Through Sweat Box at Mt. Vernon—Stories Conflicted—Some Damaging Evidence Has Been Secured—Story of Purchase of a Loaf of Bread.

MT. VERNON, OHIO, Oct. 17.—The web is tightening around the four men who were yesterday arrested at Utica, Licking county, as suspects in connection with the Danville bank dynamiting. The presence of firearms upon the persons of the quartette, their suspicious actions and the finding of dynamite and fuse in the barn where they had spent the night near Utica led the authorities to believe that the men were implicated in the Danville job, but in addition to this evidence, Professor W. C. Waughtel whose thrilling experience at the hands of the robbers has already been fully noted in these dispatches, has positively identified part of the gang.

Upon their arrival here, the men gave the names of Charles Smith, John Walker, William Fowles and Harry Gordon. They were separated at the prison and put through the "sweat-box" by the local authorities. Their stories were conflicting.

Gordon claimed that he came to Mt. Vernon Sunday from Mansfield, O., and took a freight train to Utica, and did not meet the other members of the gang until they went to Sidney Bell's barn to sleep. Gordon is one of the men whom Prof. Waughtel has identified as a Danville bank robber.

Smith, another of the four men arrested, claims to be a brass finisher. He admitted that he had bought a loaf of bread from C. V. Banberry of Brink Haven last Monday, and said that it had been wrapped in a newspaper. Mr. Banberry stated that this bread was tied in a newspaper upon which his name was stamped by the publisher. This paper has been found near Danville. Smith says he joined the gang with whom he was arrested, at Mt. Vernon and went with the men to Utica, while Gordon had claimed that he (Gordon) had not seen any of the others till he had reached Utica. When the two men were brought together with their conflicting statements, they refused to talk further.

Fowles was also identified by the Professor who was captured by the gang of eight at Danville the morning of the destruction of the bank. Prof. Waughtel identified him as one of the men who dynamited the safe.

Walker, a man about 50 years old, looks like an all-round crook. This member of the crowd, Prof. Waughtel identified as one of the two who stood guard over him as he sat bound on the curb stone while the bank was being dynamited. Prof. Waughtel recognized Walker by his clothing and his peculiar voice. It seems that Walker did some swearing while the gang was in Danville and Waughtel heard it. He has also used profanity here in prison and the Danville professor was given an opportunity to listen to him.

Other Danville people have recognized members of the gang as drunks who were seen in the vicinity of Danville the day before the bank was attacked. The other four men who were in the job are thought to be in Coshocton county, and an effort is now being made to get them.

The local authorities give great credit to the Utica men who arrested the quartette, and they feel confident that the evidence which is against them will be sufficient to send them "over the road."

SHOCKING

Testimony introduced in the DeBarr Case at London Made Police Take Extra Precautions.

London Oct. 17.—At this morning's session of the trial of Theodore and Laura Jackson (Madame DeBarr) Miss Daisy Adams 16 years old, a pretty girl with curls hanging over her shoulders, was in the witness chair.

Miss Adams said that Madame DeBarr and Theodore persuaded her parents to let them bring her to London. Madame was to teach her painting and Theodore religion. She believed that Theodore was the son of God. Her ruin followed in a similar manner to that of the other victims of the Jacksons. Angry murmurs by the crowd in the court room interrupted her testimony. Extra precautions were taken during recess to prevent the spectators from mobbing the prisoners.

It is known, however, that he will soon go to his home at Maidenhead, England.

On October 28, the Countess Russell, Earl Russell's first wife, will ask the court to make her divorce absolute. If this is granted the Earl will forthwith marry Molly Somerville, whom he formerly married in Nevada. It was this marriage that caused his arrest for bigamy.

POWERS' TRIAL

TWO NEW WITNESSES FOR THE PROSECUTION.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 17.—Mrs. W. R. Anderson was on the stand in the Powers case when court adjourned last night and resumed this morning. Mrs. Anderson identified telegrams sent and received by Caleb and John Powers when they were organizing the militia. She is the mother of Finley Anderson who repudiated the damaging testimony he gave at the last trial of Powers, and on cross examination this morning the defense brought out this fact.

It is strongly believed that Henry Youtsey will be brought from the penitentiary to testify in the Powers trial. The commonwealth denies this.

The defense has made preparations for the contingency of Youtsey being called. Last night Lewis Clark, a negro, who was in jail at Frankfort at the same time as Powers and Youtsey told of a quarrel between the two. Powers is alleged to have said: "You had better not say it," and Youtsey's reply was given as "Don't you fool with me or I'll tell enough to break your neck if it breaks mine too."

Several witnesses this morning gave the same testimony as at the former trial of Powers.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 17.—In the trial of ex-Secretary of State Caleb Powers two new witnesses were examined. Ernest Clark, a negro, who was in jail on a charge of malicious assault at Frankfort when Powers and Youtsey were being held awaiting their examining trials, testified that Powers told Youtsey that if he (Youtsey) said that he got Powers' office key, he would "make it hot for him," and that Youtsey said "if you fool with me I'll tell what will break your neck and mine."

SHOT

AND WAS ROBBED OF A $2,000 PAY ROLL

KENTUCKY POSSE NOW AFTER THE THIEF

COLGAN'S WOUNDS NOT FATAL.

Paymaster Had "Just" Drawn Money From Bank Intending to Pay the Hands—Thief Lost $500.

Middlesboro, Ky., Oct. 17.—Peter T. Colgan, paymaster and book keeper at the Virginia, Iron, Coal and Coke company's works was shot and robbed of $2,000 this morning. Colgan had just drawn the money from the bank and was taking it to the office to pay the hands.

John F. Grant heard the shot and began firing at the robber, but failed to hit him. In his flight the robber dropped $500 in silver. Five hundred citizens are on the track of the robber. Colgan will recover.

Will be Satisfied With Nothing Less Than Acquittal—To be Removed from Sing Sing.

New York, Oct. 17.—Roland B. Molineux whose conviction of the murder of Mrs. Kate J. Adams was reversed by the court of appeals, will be returned to the Tombs from Sing Sing prison today or tomorrow. Molineux was asked yesterday afternoon by members of the state parole board who happened to be near his cell, if it was true that he wanted a new trial so as to be vindicated. He replied: "Yes, that is my wish and my father's. Nothing but an acquittal will satisfy me now. I would rather die in this cell than to go out on bail."

MISLED BY THE TAFT REPORTS.

OFFICIALS THOUGHT SITUATION IN PHILIPPINES PEACEFUL.

President Roosevelt Has Decided Recent Occurrences Require Strength of Army to be Kept Up.

Washington, Oct. 17.—President Roosevelt has decided that there would be no reduction in the number of American troops in the Philippines for an indefinite period. For some time it has been the opinion of the war department that the situation in the islands was favorable to allowing the force there to be gradually decreased, but later information has changed this idea.

Washington has been misled by the reports of the Taft commission. Its members have given a most optimistic account of the progress of the pacification of the territory and the establishment of civil government. A number of things have happened recently, however, to open the eyes of the authorities here as to the real conditions of affairs, chief among which was the disaster in Samar.

The clash between the commission and General Chaffee also caused the officials to take a clearer view of the matter and their conclusion supported the contention of the commander there that it was yet too early to talk about decreasing the number of soldiers.

There are now 43,000 men in the Philippines. The term of enlistment of 20,000 of these expires by next June 1, and the war department has a task on its hands in getting them back to the United States and sending others to take their places.

HARD FIGHT

Flora, Ind., October 17.—The wild man who has been terrorizing women and children in this vicinity for a number of days was captured five miles south of here in the woods by Charles Hill, Rush McCarty, James Jordan and ex-County Sheriff G. H. Squires. He has been pursued for a number of days and made a hard fight before being overcome. His clothes are in tatters, and his hair and beard have not been trimmed for years. He will be held in jail until some other provision is made.

The man seems to be constantly in a deep study. He is a Norwegian and says his name is George Carrigan and his home Buffalo, N. Y.; that he is 24 years old, and has no relatives living. He expressed anarchistic views, and says he saw Czolgosz the day he shot McKinley.

He wants to get a wife. Prominent ladies agree he is "Jack the Huger" who has been terrorizing them.

Washington, Oct. 17.—President Ratin of the Panama Canal Company, called on Admiral Walker of the Isthmian Canal Commission, today and offered to sell his concession, railway and all rights possessed by the French concern to the United States government. M. Ratin offered to sell for several million dollars less than valuation heretofore placed on the property which was said to be one hundred and seven millions. The Panama stockholders are said to be panic stricken at the prospect of the Nicaraguan Canal being built by the United States as its construction would destroy forever their chances of realizing anything from the expenditures made in their ditch.

MARRIAGE

New Orleans, La., Oct. 17.—The marriage of Miss Victoria Reel and Robert Sadler wrote the end to one of the strangest and bloodiest romances New Orleans ever has known.

Sadler and Miss Reel had been lovers from childhood. Sadler worked hard to hasten the time when he could claim the girl as his bride. But Peter Miller, who also loved Miss Reel, did all in his power to influence her against the man of her choice. Finally, it is claimed, he circulated the report that Sadler had negro blood in his veins, hoping to estrange the lovers.

Sadler shot Miller dead. Sadler was found guilty of murder and was sentenced to hang. His attorneys appealed to the supreme court which reversed the decision of the jury. The marriage followed.

TRUE TO SCHLEY

Admiral Was Cool in Face of Danger and Was Perfectly Natural Says Commander Griffin Before the Court—Testimony Favors Schley—Review of Evidence Offered.

Washington, Oct. 17.—In the Schley inquiry this morning all the time was taken in describing the battle of Santiago by witnesses. Lieutenant Commander E. D. Griffin, who was senior watch officer of the Brooklyn, testified today saying that he saw Admiral Schley from the time the Viscaya went ashore to the end of the battle. He said that Schley was "cool in the face of danger and was perfectly natural."

All the witnesses who testified yesterday and they were officers who served with Schley, had the same story to tell of his bearing while under fire. It was to the effect that he was cool and courageous and wholly free from excitement. There does not seem to be any testimony to confirm the opinion of Lieut. Potts, of the Massachusetts, that on May 31 Schley was laboring under great mental excitement or that he advised the officers to get behind the turret because their white uniforms made them conspicuous targets.

Washington, Oct. 17.—In the Schley inquiry the examination of the officers of Admiral Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, was continued. The proceedings began with the recall of Captain Cook and Lieutenant Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieutenant Edward McCauley, Jr., who was signal officer, and Lieutenant Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn during the battle off Santiago, and was a watch officer on board the ship.

Commander Mason and Lieutenants McCauley and Webster all gave accounts of the engagement of July 3. Mr. McCauley recited in detail the signals made in connection with that historical event at the instance of Commodore Schley. When asked if Commodore Schley had said anything during the battle for the encouragement of the men, this witness replied that he several times had said, "Give 'em hell, bullies!" All these witnesses testified that the conduct of the commodore when under fire was cool and courageous.

Captain Cook's new testimony related to the uncoupling of the Brooklyn's engines and to the voyage of the flying squadron from Cienfuegos to Santiago, explaining in some detail the cause of the slow progress made on that occasion.

Commander Sears spoke again of the interview reported as having taken place between himself and officers on the Massachusetts in the wardroom of that vessel on May 31, in which he was alleged to have said that it had been difficult to get Commodore Schley up to the point of undertaking the bombardment of the Colon, and he again denied that he had said anything reflecting upon his superior officer.

DYING CHILD

Called Parents and Made Them Promise Never to Touch Liquor Again. A Large Funeral.

Columbus, O., Oct. 17.—The entire congregation of St. Patrick's church in this city turned out to pay the last honors to little Nellie Welch, the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Welch of Cozzens street.

The little girl had been a cripple from birth. To add to her trouble her father has within recently been fond of liquor, and recently her mother also became addicted to drink. As a result both father and mother have appeared frequently in the Police Court, and for some time have not been living together. The little crippled girl was forced to earn her own living at an age when she should have been attending school.

Her privations and the hard work she was forced to do broke her down, and some weeks ago she was taken to a hospital. There it was seen that she had no chance to get well, and the only thing to be hoped for was that her last days would be peaceful.

Through her last illness, as through all her life, she tried to get her parents to lead better lives. They agreed, and for the last few weeks have been living together.

When she was on her death bed she called them in and they promised her that during their lives they would never take another drink.

Her pathetic life story was known to the congregation of the church where she was buried, and the largest funeral ever held in the church was in her honor.

MISS ELLEN M. STONE.

MEANS OF TRANSPORTATION IN THE BALKANS.

When Miss Ellen M. Stone, the kidnapped missionary is restored to her friends the incident which has attracted the attention of the whole world will not be at an end. This government is firmly determined that the desperate band of Bulgarian brigands shall suffer for their cowardly act. The Turkish and Bulgarian governments will be held strictly to account unless the capture of the band is effected. The Advocate today received the following press dispatch from Cologne:

The Cologne Gazette has a dispatch today from Sofia, Bulgaria, which says that U. S. Consul General Dickinson, at Constantinople, has discovered positive evidence that Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary, abducted by brigands, was captured at the instigation of the Macedonian committee. The dispatch says that in consequence of this the Consul General has absolutely refused to pay the ransom raised in the United States and demanded by the abductors. Consul Dickinson, it is added, has officially ordered the Bulgarian government to take immediate measures to bring about the arrest of the chief instigators of the outrage. Several prominent members of the Macedonian committee have been arrested, it is said.

HINTS FOR FARMERS

A Half Acre Garden.

Professor Lloyd of the Illinois Agricultural college tells of the expense of a half acre garden, not including use of land or the manure used on it. The seeds and plants cost $5.45. Insecticides 70 cents, labor $24.11, a total of $32.04. Most farmers would think this a rather heavy outlay on a half acre, and if they added about five cords of manure to that it would be a large outlay where manure sells at a high price. Probably few put more than one or two cords of manure to the acre, and even then would expect the land to be much richer when the crops were taken off than before. But here is his statement of the results: "In return for this expenditure the garden furnished a continuous supply of fresh vegetables throughout the growing season, with enough sweet corn for drying, tomatoes for canning, cucumbers, peppers, cabbage, string beans and green tomatoes for pickling; radishes, beets, carrots, parsnips, salsify, winter radishes, cauliflower and celery for winter use, and parsnips, horse radish and salsify left in ground for spring. These vegetables could not have been bought in the usual way for less than $20.84. This leaves a balance of $51.78 in favor of the garden. What other half acre on the farm pays as well?"

Nitrogen and Potash.

The Ohio experiment station reports an interesting series of experiments to determine whether nitrogen and potash are necessary in fertilizers where clover is used in five year rotation, phosphate being supplied. The conclusion is that nitrogen and potash cannot be altogether dispensed with in such rotation. The trend of evidence seems to be that a well balanced fertilizer, including all the three chief elements noted, is most useful in a long rotation.

Shavings For Bedding.

Five shavings have practically no value as manure, while straw is worth from $3 to $4 per ton, says New England Homestead. Manure from animals bedded with straw would be worth somewhat more than when shavings were used, depending on the amount of straw contained. Shavings are not injurious to crops, but are objectionable in large quantities on light land and correspondingly beneficial on heavy clay soil.

Washington, Oct. 17.—Mr. Maurice Hulin, the president of the board of directors of the Panama Canal company, has reached Washington. He made a special and informal call on Admiral Walker, chairman of the United States isthmian canal commission, and later will pay a business call on the admiral for the purpose of bringing forward the question of the disposition of the Panama Canal company's interest in that partially constructed waterway. The isthmian canal commission has endeavored to obtain a positive and definite statement of exactly what the Panama company would accept for its rights, and Mr. Hulin's return to France this summer was for the purpose of obtaining information on that point. It is understood that he now has a proposition to make to the United States commission, but along what lines it is impossible to ascertain.

AMUSEMENTS.

No more pleasant or welcome announcement could be made than Are You a Mason? That clever farce from the German by Leo Detrichstein, author of "All On Account of Eliza," "The Last Appeal," &c., &c., creating a tremendous furor wherever produced, the fun is pure and wholesome. The adventures and mishaps of fraudulent Masons, simply convulsed, before one laugh dies away there is another to take its place and as a result ones sides are apt to ache from sheer merriment. As has been freely set forth in the advance comment the theme of this farce, "Are You a Mason?" and is composed of several polite fibs, which are told to explain absences from home and Masonry is made merely a good natured pretext for these absences. Just how it all comes about may be told another time, but I imagine that so funny a farce played by a company of clever comedians will be presented at the Auditorium next Saturday night. There is nothing ponderous in the complications, nor is the structure ponderous. But the play amusing which is all that can be asked for.

BIG MINSTRELS COMING.

Allen Dale Says: Compared with the comic operas and musical comedies now in the city, compared also with the farces, burlesques and extravaganzas, Primrose & Dockstader's list of hotel rules and regulations, which although mere jokes, were uttered in that inimitable serious and emphatic manner of the comedian, got over the footlights at once and suffused me and my neighbors with mirth in spite of ourselves. I could not have helped laughing at his droppings then, than I can now help writing of them, and I noticed that I was not alone in my risibilities for the whole auditorium was one perpetual convulsion.

Let us consign the minstrel show to the background as soon as we have anything better to offer, but at present I submit the fact that we have nothing better. Let us not put on too many airs with respect to the minstrel show. The thin line that divides humor from gathos is neatly traversed by Primrose & Dockstader's troupe. Some of the songs that I heard would put the ditties of the absurd comic opera singers, who come forth in little knickerbockers trimmed with lace, to shame. Can any one in his right mind accept the pathos of a love song from a gentleman who is heavily trimmed with satin and who wears a Gainsborough hat with ostrich feather? I hear a baritone in Primrose & Dockstader's sing Foote's "Good-bye" as I heard no comic opera gentleman warble. It was Thackeray who once wrote: "I heard a humorous balladist not long since, a minstrel with wool on his head and an ultra Ethiopian complexion, who performed a negro ballad that I confess moistened these spectacles in a most unexpected manner." I went to the Herald Square Theatre to scoff, because I fancied I had a soul above a minstrel show, which I had not visited for years. I stayed there, and I didn't scoff. I asked myself, "Are we really going forward? Are we really getting more intelligent? Have we replaced minstrelsy with anything worthier?" I had to answer all these interrogations in the negative. There is nothing better or worthier—nothing so good or so worthy with us just now. To appear at Auditorium Tuesday, October 29.

CZAR AND MANCHURIA

CLEVERLY WORDED FOR A PURPOSE.

Negotiations by which Russia seeks to legalize her Occupation of the Territory Entrusted to Earl Li Hung Chang—Budget of Intelligence From Over the Seas.

Peking, Oct. 17.—The new Manchurian convention, which has been subject of negotiation between M. Paul Lessar, Russian minister to China, and Li Hung Chang, is on the same lines as the convention which Russia withdrew April 5, but it is more cleverly worded, so as to save China's face. In consequence of previous disclosures a jealous secrecy has been observed, but the important negotiations by which Russia seeks to legalize her occupation of Manchuria have been entrusted to Li Hung Chang, who can be better trusted to serve Russian interests than any other Chinese statesman.

Prince Ching is indignant because he has been kept in ignorance, and both the Yang-Tse viceroys have twice protested against the negotiations. The same powerful opposition that was employed before is again endeavoring to prevent the signature of the conventions, but Russia's promise to restore the railway from Shan-Hai-Kwan to Nieu-Chwang is a powerful lever in the hands of M. Lessar.

Revolting Testimony.

London, Oct. 17.—When the hearing of the charge against Theodore and Laura Jackson (Ann O'Delia Diss D'Bar) was resumed in the police court, the woman entered the dock dressed in spotless white. She placed her hands together before her face and closed her eyes in the attitude of prayer. The crowded courtroom was silent. The hearing was devoted to revolting testimony of the behavior of the male defendant toward a young woman who was one of the victims of the pair. The alleged deceptions were seemingly accompanied by hypnotic influence.

Russian Advice to Korea.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 17.—According to advices from Yokohama received here the autumn maneuvers of the Japanese army will take place on Nov. 9, and on the day following there will be a grand review of 15,000 troops before the emperor. The Japanese government has established naval headquarters at Maizuru, on the Japan sea. The Japan Mail publishes a statement to the effect that Russian officers have been urging Korea to fortify the coasts of the peninsula, and offered to secure the money for the purpose without interest.

Rebels Defeated.

Colon, Colombia, Oct. 17.—The situation on the isthmus of Panama is unchanged. News has been received here that the government forces defeated the insurgents recently at Paname, killing a large number. Paname is now in the hands of the government. The government loss in the engagement was 40 killed and wounded, among the latter being Colonel Navia. By a recent decree all import duties in this department were doubled, ad valorem duties now being 20 per cent. All liquor duties have also been doubled.

Effect of Eight-Hour Law.

Paris, Oct. 17.—The central committee of coal owners, replying to a government inquiry as to the working hours in mines, says: "An eight-hour law would reduce the output more than 6,500,000 tons. Thousands of miners over half of France would be thrown out of work. In the other half of France the competition of foreign coal fields would leave such a small margin between the cost of production and the selling value that a reduction of wages would be necessary."

Bread Riots.

Vienna, Oct. 17.—The papers report bread riots at Taraskova, eastern Russia. In Sumatra the starving peasants stormed the municipal buildings and the residences of wealthy persons, setting fire to some. Troops were summoned and 14 peasants were killed. Similar riots in which several persons were killed occurred at Anderewska, where two land owners had been murdered, and also at Pestrakwa and elsewhere in the same district.

German Ambassador to Retire.

London, Oct. 17.—While the Count Von Hatzfeldt-Wildenburg has not yet formally resigned the post of German ambassador to Great Britain, no surprise is felt here at the announcement that he will retire. For a long time his physical condition has been very low, and he has been compelled to spend most of his waking hours in bed or on a sofa.

To Challenge For the Cup.

London, Oct. 17.—In response to inquiry as to the report that he was the chairman of a syndicate of four organized to challenge for the Americas cup, John Erskine of Belfast said: "The report was prematurely published and without my authority I regret that I can not afford further information just now."

Notorious Brigand Nabbed.

Rome, Oct. 17.—The notorious brigand, Mussolini, has been captured after a fierce resistance at Urdino. He had long terrorized Calabria, and is credited with 25 murders. Owing to the sympathy shown him by the peasantry he had always escaped capture, despite the immense reward offered his head.

Pleasant Tasting Tablet; Simple, Convenient; Cures Every Form Catarrh.

The use of inhalers, douches, sprays, salves and powders for catarrh is a nuisance and inconvenience at the best, and cannot compare with anti-septic remedies in tablet form for internal use.

Internal remedies are the only ones which can reach the seat of the disease which is in the blood and local applications can no more cure a catarrh than rheumatism or kidney trouble. The excessive secretion in nose and throat being local manifestations of a deep seated poison in the blood.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, the most successful of the various internal remedies, is composed principally of highly concentrated antiseptics, which destroy the catarrh germs in the blood, and causes them to be eliminated through the natural channels.

Progressive physicians use and advise Stuart's Catarrh Tablets because they contain no cocaine, no opiate, no enervating drug whatever, but are composed of Gualacol, Hydrastin, Red Gum and similar catarrh antiseptics, and are so safe and pleasant that even little children may use them with excellent results.

Catarrh sufferers who have wasted time and money on local applications should not despair of a radical cure until a trial of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets has been made.

A complete treatment may be purchased at any drug store for fifty cents. Oct. 17-19-24-26

For Frank Dunaway's Body But It Has Not Been Found—Blind Father is Heartbroken Over the Absence of His Son and the Mystery Surrounding It.

As stated in Wednesday's Advocate was the presence of the missing man's prosecuting Attorney Thomas W. father, wife, and stepmother. The Phillips made a cursory examination of the gas tanks at the artificial gas plant with a view to determining whether or not the body of Frank Dunaway, who has been missing for several weeks, could be found.

This morning under the direction of City Solicitor P. B. Smythe and Marshal Vogelmeier, Officer Robert Ziegler made a thorough examination as was possible under the circumstances.

A rope with a number of hooks was used, and the space between the tank and the stone wall about two feet was thoroughly dragged.

It was intended to use a rope, and draw it under the tank, but this plan was found not to be feasible, as the uprights on which the tank moves up and down, extend to the bottom, and the rope could not be passed under.

After about an hour and a half of careful search with the grapple hooks, it was decided that the body, if there, could not be found in that manner, and other methods will be used.

A sad feature of the grim search for about a month.

FLOWER AND TREE.

A few pieces of charcoal dropped into the water assist in preserving cut flowers.

The hole for a tree should be made wide and deep and the bottom be filled with rich earth.

The seeds of nearly all forest trees do best if not allowed to become dry before planting.

For the finest flowers sow pansy seed in the fall. Protect the young plants through the winter, and you will be well rewarded.

The sweet william is a biennial, but will sow their own seeds and come up year after year, as do hollyhocks, thus making them practically perennials.

One of the handsome perennials that flower in July is the digitalis, which has long spikes of blue thimble shaped flowers. It makes a striking clump.

The principal advantage in fall sowing of flower seeds is that the plants grow stronger, root deeper and flower earlier and longer than those from spring sown seed.

The grape is one of the most desirable fruits to plant. It is inexpensive to get a start with, it bears early, it is productive and easily managed, and the fruit is delicious and wholesome.

Couldn't Stand Satire.

A burglar, while attempting to rob a bloated bondholder of Maryville, by mistake got into the humble residence of an editor next door. After unsuccessfully fumbling about for suitable assets for some time he was disgusted to observe the tenant of the house sitting up in bed and laughing at him.

"Jerusalem!" said the burglar, locking at his stemwinder. "And here I've been wasting four precious hours on this branch almshouse. I say, old quill driver, you never poke fun at your subscribers, do you?"

"Not the cash ones."

"Exactly," said the burglar, taking out his wallet. "Here's six months' subscription to call this thing square. If there's one thing on earth I can't stand, it's satire."—Tit-Bits.

Personal Elements of Success.

"Personality," as it is called, is a thing apart, a light that cannot be hidden. It is difficult to describe, being in its nature variable. Often it is composed of one part talent and two parts character, and he who has it may in spite of other deficiencies command success.

Large successes are attainable by the union of aptitude and concentration of purpose, coincident with opportunity; the meeting of the man and the occasion, the suiting of the word to the action, the action to the word; self confidence, unflinching courage, absolute probity.—Henry Watterson in Success.

Inherited Power.

"To what," asked the young woman with the notebook, "do you attribute your remarkable power in training these animals and keeping them in subjection?"

"Well," replied Miss Castle, the lady wonder of the arena, "I think I inherited it from my mother. She was a strong minded woman. My father was a regular bear, and she had to subdue him about once a day as long as she lived."—Chicago Tribune.

They Hold More.

"Do you ever wish you were a girl?" asked the visitor who was waiting in the reception room.

"Only at Christmas time," answered the boy, who was lingering in the doorway.

INTERESTED IN STATE MEETING AT DAYTON.

Federation on Oct. 30, 31 and Nov. 1. Outline of the Program That Has Been Arranged.

Newark club women are interested in the Seventh annual convention of the Ohio Federation of Women's clubs to be held at Dayton, Oct. 30, 31 and Nov. 1. From a convention circular just received by the Advocate today the following extract is made:

The general headquarters will be at the Algonquin. The meetings, except those on Thursday, will be held in the Third street Presbyterian church. The Thursday meetings will be held in the Victoria theatre.

On Wednesday afternoon a council of presidents and delegates will be held. Club members also are cordially invited.

Reports of clubs have been classified under eight subjects: Department, Art, Educational, Social Conditions and Current Events, Literature, History, Special Countries, and Clubs Studying Miscellaneous Topics.

These reports will be read by women of experience and ability, and ample time for discussion will follow. They aim to be, not statistical, but helpful.

Education will receive especial attention. This vital subject, as well as philanthropy, household economics, and industrial problems will be treated by professional workers—women who will inspire others because filled with personal enthusiasm.

Discussion will be a special feature. It is hoped that club women will come fully prepared to speak concisely, clearly and to the point on all subjects opened for their consideration.

The music will be carefully prepared by the leading musicians of Dayton and will be so arranged as to afford rest and variety.

Each club is entitled to two delegates. Previous to the convention, two circular cards, two delegate's badges and convention circulars will be mailed to each club president.

As soon as delegates are appointed, their names should be sent to Mrs. Charles W. Raymond, No. 647 Grand avenue, Dayton, Ohio.

Each delegate is requested to bring to Dayton a credential card from her club, a convention circular, and a year book of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs. Two year books were mailed to each federated club in Ohio.

Delegates are also requested: (a) To wear their badges upon arrival in Dayton, in order to avail themselves of free transportation afforded delegates.

(b) To deposit their credential cards, filled out, at the Bureau of Information in the Algonquin, in order that their names may be registered.

Club members who are not delegates are also requested to register, that they may receive the club member's badge which will entitle them to the various courtesies extended by the fourteen federated clubs of Dayton.

One full fare to Dayton and one-third returning.

Railroad certificates must be deposited at the Bureau of Information immediately upon arrival.

The railroad agent will be inattentive at the Algonquin, Thursday, to sign certificates.

SOAP DIGNITY.

IT IS easy to find a pure soap; it is easy to find a cheap one. The problem is to find both combined; a soap that is pure yet inexpensive. Ivory Soap is the best solution of that problem. It is an original product, evolved after years of experiment and research. It is the most of pure soap for the least money. It stands approved to-day by a second generation of Ivory Soap users.

October 30, from 8 to 12 o'clock, by the clubs of Dayton to which officers, speakers, delegates and all federated club members are invited.

Admission by badge only. Each guest is privileged to bring an escort.

On Thursday afternoon the Dayton clubs invite the officers, speakers, and the visiting club members to take a drive to the National Cash Register Plant and to the Dayton National Military Home.

All club women will be welcome as visitors. Some important amendments to the constitution are to be considered.

Mrs. James R. Hopley is President and Mrs. John M. Mulford, Corresponding Secretary of the Ohio Federation.

WRECK TRAIN CALLED.

The Pan Handle wreck train was called from Columbus early this morning to clear up a wreck on the road east of Cedar street. A yard engine ran into the rear end of a freight train demolishing the caboose and one car loaded with sewer tiles. Traffic was not delayed to any extent.

ARM BROKEN

Mr. Jesse Wilson, the Advocate's efficient pressman in the news department, had the misfortune to break his left arm about noon today. Mr. Wilson had climbed upon a ladder to place a pulley on the shafting when he slipped and he was precipitated to the floor, a distance of about five feet. In falling he fell on his left shoulder and arm, breaking the member at the elbow. The fracture was promptly reduced by Dr. Rank. This makes the second time that Mr. Wilson has had his left arm broken. The first time he broke it by falling out of a hay mow. Notwithstanding the fact that Jesse has the use of only one arm he is still as good as several ordinary men.

STOKES IS DYING.

New York, Oct. 17.—Edward Stokes, while only sixty, is dying, his doctors say, of old age, in this city. His life has been crowded with incidents. He it was who killed "Jim" Fisk and made sensational threats against Jay Gould. He is better known to this generation as proprietor of the Hoffman House.

"Don't place too much confidence in appearances," says the Manayunk Philosopher; "the narrow-chested man may be the most broad-minded."

A FIENDISH ATTACK.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electro Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50c at Hall's Drug Store.
